

Wojciech Filipkowski PhD, works at the Department of Criminal Law at the Faculty of Law, University of Białystok as a legal scholar and researcher. His two major fields of research are the phenomena of money laundering and the financing of terrorism. He is also interested in the use of modern technology by law enforcement agencies.

Wojciech Filipkowski

This series of publications has been intended mainly for foreign students who attend courses conducted in English at the University of Białystok Faculty of Law. However, it may also be an invaluable resource for those who are involved in the legal domain and/or wish to develop their language skills in the use of Legal English.

Each book in the series:

- provides students with basic outline of the course,
- includes definitions necessary to understand the topic along with numerous primary sources,
- enhances the study process by containing a glossary of terminology and a quiz, along with useful links and a bibliography for further reading.
